Justin Boots

Though spring is promised at the end of March, we are still meant to stride puddles and keep our feet warm in this cruelest of months. For spring, Justin Boots has a pair of cute, creamy Huesa Liega Cowboy Boots with a flowery design that you can pair with this season's hip military looks. The insole J-Flex flexible comfort system © with removable orthotic inserts make these boots extremely comfortable for growing girls. For the youngest fashionistas, check out the new style for spring in pink camouflage.

Available at <http://www.JustinBoots.com>, <http://www.Zappos.com> and western retailers nationwide at the end of April.
